

WANTED!

Kids who Love Agriculture. Join the Youth Sugarbeet Project!

WHY JOIN THE YOUTH SUGARBEET PROJECT?

Because it's fun! The Youth Sugarbeet Project is a program that runs from June - August for kids in 3rd through 12th grade. Kids in the program learn about sugarbeets and the agriculture industry, get networking and professional skills,

WHAT DO YOU DO?

The program starts with a Summer 'Trip' in June. In years past we've attended Tigers and Loons games, the Detroit Zoo, and the Henry Ford museum. The trip for 2017 will be Cedar Point! Other events take place through the summer, and an awards banquet is held in January.

IS THERE A COST?

Michigan Sugar firmly believes in the importance of teaching our youth about sugarbeets and the future of farming. Today's youth is our industry's future! Michigan Sugar is proud to sponsor this program for our growing areas, so there is no cost

DO I HAVE TO LIVE ON A FARM?

Nope! Our program is designed for all kids that have an interest in sugarbeets and agriculture. There are tons of careers in the agriculture industry, and you will get to learn about many of them during this program.

HOW DO I JOIN?

Visit www.michigansugar.com/community/youthsugarbeetproject/ to register. The deadline to sign up is May 1, 2017, so don't wait!
